Meditation Prayer

Wind of God, blowing among the crowds at Pentecost, sweeping across the generations to claim us, may we be born of the Spirit. Speak to us of heavenly things in the midst of our earthly pilgrimage so we may live, not for ourselves, but for the well-being of the whole human family. Send us as messengers of good news and bearers of your peace. Amen.

Call to Contemplation

Call to Worship (responsively)

L: Ascribe to God glory and strength.
Worship God in holy splendor.

C: The splendor of our Creator meets us here.
We are filled with awe before our God.

L: The voice of God is powerful and full of majesty.
God offers strength and peace to all people.

C: God's voice thunders over the waters.
God's strength empowers our response.

L: Holy, holy, holy is the God of hosts.
The whole earth is full of God's glory.

C: The universe is God's dwelling place.
There is no place from which God is absent.

Prayer of Invocation (in unison)

Oh God, you are beyond our wildest imagining. When we speak of you, there are no words to describe your majesty and power. We know you best in Jesus of Nazareth who shared your love with all he met. He called for our rebirth as your children, cleansed by water and the spirit. We come together seeking renewal of the vows made at our baptism. We want to be faithful as Christ was faithful. We want to be fruitful in the work you give us to do. Bless our worship that we may be a blessing to others.

Amen.

Prayer of Dedication (in unison)

Receive our offering, God of glory, that our church may come alive in the Spirit. May these gifts, and the way we live our lives each day, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. Strengthen us in our giving. Help us to be generous enough to experience the joy you find in showering us with more than we can ever give away. Thank you for the gift of Jesus Christ. Amen.
